Design and Merchandising

Develop creative and practical skills in the areas of apparel, home and interior design. Laboratory experiences complement the studies of textiles and construction, window display, and home living arrangements. Marketing principles, as well as graphic design classes, prepare you for many creative or entrepreneurial careers related to fashion or interior design.

Career Opportunities

- Advertising
- Alteration and Custom Design of Apparel
- Bridal Consulting
- Buying
- Floral Design
- Furniture Design
- Kitchen and Bath Design
- Patternmaking
- Retail Sales
- Space Planning and Organization

Is the Design and Merchandising option for you?

Are you looking for a bright future in sales and the service industries? Your creative talents can make you your own boss or part of an exciting international team. You might aspire to become an apprentice in theatre costume design or specialize in alterations. You might choose to use your skills to create bridal or formal wear, or even architectural or interior design plans. With this degree, the sky is the limit for future careers.
