Fall College Campus Tours—Hastings College, Southeast Community College & University of Nebraska Lincoln (UNL)

On October 10th, six UB students and their chaperones headed off to eastern part of Nebraska to tour three college campuses. First stop—North Platte, Nebraska for some phenomenal Mexican food!

The next day the group headed to tour Hastings College, a private Presbyterian college in Hastings, NE, where they participated in Bronco Visit Day. Bronco Visit Day started with a Welcome and Financial Aid 101 session where students learned about the great scholarships and perks that Hastings has to offer their students—such as a free Ipad, block scheduling, and an opportunity to study abroad their junior year. The students then split up into groups to tour the campus and then participated in individual sessions with Hastings faculty. They all enjoyed lunch in the Hastings cafeteria before heading to Lincoln.

That afternoon, students toured Southeast Community College in Lincoln, NE. Southeast offers many certificate and two year degree options such as culinary, construction, agriculture, and health sciences. In fact, Southeast has a brand new, state of the art, Health Sciences building that wowed the group!

After the tour of Southeast Community College, UB Director Heather Barry introduced the group to the amazing restaurant—Cheddar's—where Kevin fell in love with the honey butter croissants. Everyone stuffed themselves until they couldn't eat anymore.

On Tuesday, the group headed to the University of Nebraska Lincoln (UNL) to participate in the College Success Showcase Day. During the College Success Showcase Day, students had the opportunity to attend various sessions according to their interests and major—such as Honors Program, Sororities, and more. All students toured the UNL campus and ate lunch in one of the UNL cafeterias. The day ended with a session on financial aid and seeing one of our former UB students—London Gillam. As the crew started the long journey back to Chadron, the students seemed pleased with how the campus tours went, with a couple students even applying for admissions at Hastings College.

Upward Bound will be planning a spring college campus trip to WNCC and EWC for Spring 2022. Talk to your advisors if you are interested in attending.
