C. Policy

1. Dropped Courses

1.1. 100% Refund Period

The refund calculation for a dropped course uses the start and end date for the course to determine the total number of days, and then establishes the 100% refund at the 6% point of course days. Percentages are rounded up based upon the decimal being at or above 0.45.

1.2. 50% Refund Period

The refund for dropped courses occurring after the 6% point of the course days through the 12% point, will be at 50%. Percentages are rounded up based upon the decimal point being at or above 0.45.

Per NSCS Board Policy (6503 - Refunds):

2. Student or Administrative Withdrawal

2.1 Prior to Start of Academic Term or Session

Students that withdraw or are administratively withdrawn from all courses they are enrolled in prior to the start of the academic semester or academic session will have all tuition, fees, housing and food plan charges removed from their account without penalty.

2.2 After Academic Term or Session Starts

Tuition and fees will be prorated through 60% of the session excluding breaks of five days or more, including weekends (Where classes end on a Friday and do not resume until Monday following a one-week break, both weekends (four days) and the five weekdays would be excluded from the calculation, for a total of nine days). After the 60% point, no refund is available to the student.

Housing refunds will also be prorated through 60% of the term using the start and end dates to calculate the proration, and the final checkout date to calculate the refund.

Food service refunds will be prorated through 60% of the term using the start and end dates to calculate the proration, and the Sunday following the date of withdrawal as the date to calculate the refund.

2.3 Administrative Withdrawal for Nonpayment

A student withdrawn for nonpayment shall have all student tuition and fees removed from their account and will have their room and food plan prorated.
